

June 2022 Howe of Fife & Taycoast Community Council Report

Introduction

This month Community Officers PC's Lowe and Hadow have been abstracted for a number of shifts to assist in St. Andrews with the Graduation Parades of University Students. They have also with assistance from Response Officers been tackling reports of anti-social behaviour and canvassing for volunteers to participate in the Community Speed Watch Campaign.

As a result of the reports of anti-social behaviour, officers have identified and reported 5 individuals found to be responsible for some of the unacceptable behaviour in the Strathmiglo area and 1 individual in the Freuchie area.

Upcoming Events

During the month of July Officers will be deployed to the 150th Open Golf held in St. Andrews which is a prestigious event that they are looking forward to being a part of.

What's Been Happening

Coffee With Cops

This month PC's Haddow and Lowe attended and received a warm welcome from local residents at Kettle Memorial Hall, Kingskettle Coffee morning.

This is something the officers would like to extend to other areas who would be willing to host in an effort to improve community engagement and give residents the opportunity to meet and greet the local community officers.

Any areas willing to participate please contact PC's Lowe and Haddow on the contact email address on this report.
